

Gemeenskap

Captain Zwandile Gqabi in conversation with executive mayor Diane Gagiano. Photo: Supplied

Fun at Woman's Day celebrations

ANNE BINOS

THE McGregor Community Police Forum in conjunction with various stakeholders recently organised a very successful Women's Day event.

The day started off with a fun walk round the village, followed by the official opening of the event by various dignitaries such as Capt. Zwandile Gqabi, councillor Davin Hull, principal Danie Kroukamp and executive mayor Diane Gagiano. The day was opened in prayer and with scripture read by Elana Redelinghuys.

The Master of Ceremonies, Maria Oostendorff, community policing forum chairperson, led the programme. The aerobics led by Corrie van de Colff was great fun as were sports such as egg and spoon races, three legged races and sack races arranged by Laetitia Thys, and a fantastic treasure hunt organised by Rose Kent with prizes donated by Dragon Fly Studio, Karoux Restaurant and Jo Nowicki.

Minister Werner Redelinghuys from the Dutch Reformed Church gave rides to the children around the rugby field on his motorbike.